Around the Area

Bacchus Marsh

A town located just off the Western Freeway, approximately 50km west of Melbourne, midway between Melbourne and Ballarat in a fertile valley comprising of orchards and market gardens.

The township itself has a long history, dating back to the days when gold was first discovered in nearby Ballarat during the 1850s.

The main road into "The Marsh" is The Avenue of Honour which is lined by beautiful trees planted in honour of those serving our country in WW1. The Avenue is peppered with fresh produce outlets and leads directly to the main commercial precinct which includes fashion outlets, banks, health services including a hospital, hairdressers, cafes, takeaway food outlets and much more.

The Bacchus Marsh Train station is located in the Maddingley area of town with a V-Line service from Melbourne to Ballarat making the city commute a comfortable 45 minute trip. There is also connecting bus lines to the town centre as well as other residential areas.

Bacchus Marsh has 4 schools including 4 Primary, and 1 Secondary college and Bacchus Marsh Grammar which caters from Prep -12.

Also a feature of Bacchus Marsh is its lovely outdoor recreational areas including the well known Maddingley Park Precinct. This fabulous family park consists of an adventure playground and is a favourite picnic area for locals and visitors.

Bacchus Marsh is also home to various sporting clubs including football, netball, cricket, tennis, soccer and many more.

Bacchus Marsh really does have the best of both worlds catering comfortably for everyday needs while keeping its "country town" charm. It is surrounded by a rich collection of state parks, national parks and waterways which offer bushwalking tracks and the opportunity to explore the scenic gorges and ranges in the area. There are also picnic spots along the Lerderderg River, Werribee River and at the historic bridge over Djerriwarrh Creek, just off the Western Highway. The Merrimu Reservoir, just a short drive north of town, offers BBQ and picnic facilities beside the water supply for towns in the area.

Attractions within town include the historic Court House, the Tudor-style Border Inn, the Blacksmith's Cottage, and a number of churches dating back to the 1800s. The Chicory Kiln, in Taverner Street, has been preserved since its construction in 1885 when chicory roots were roasted before being ground and added to coffee.

Maddingley

Maddingley is a suburb of Bacchus Marsh. The locality consists of the portion of the Bacchus Marsh urban area south of the Werribee River.

Items of interest in Maddingley include the Bacchus Marsh railway station, Bacchus Marsh College, Bacchus Marsh Grammar School and the Maddingley brown coal mine. Maddingley Park including the Nieuwesteeg Heritage Rose Garden, is adjacent to the railway station.

The Bacchus Marsh Train station is located in the Maddingley area of town with a V-Line service from Melbourne to Ballarat making the city commute a comfortable 45 minute trip. There is also connecting bus lines to the town centre as well as other residential areas.

Maddingley has lovely outdoor recreational areas including the well known Maddingley Park Precinct. This fabulous family park consists of an adventure playground and is a favourite picnic area for locals and visitors alike.

Maddingley is also home to many sporting clubs including the Bacchus Marsh Lawn Tennis Clun, Bacchus Marsh Cobras Football and Netball Club and The Bacchus Marsh Cricket Club.

Darley

Darley is a suburb of Bacchus Marsh, Victoria, Australia located directly north of the central area across the Western Freeway.

It is bordered by the Lerderderg River to the east, Korkuperrimui Creek to the west, Western Freeway to the south and Lerderderg State Park to the north. Darley is located on the rural urban fringe, the topography varies but is mostly undulating.

In recent decades Darley has rapidly grown and has become a major suburban area of Bacchus Marsh with a large number of housing estates and developments to the east south and north capitalising on Darley's proximity to the freeway.

The suburb is home to Darley Primary School, Pentland Hills Primary School, large sports oval (Darley Oval) home to the Darley Football Club, the Bacchus Marsh Golf club, IGA supermarket and small commercial centre on Albert Street.

Darley is also home to many walking and hiking tracks in the Lerderderg Gorge area and has spectacular views reaching all the way to the Melbourne city skyline on a clear day.

Ballan

Ballan is Moorabools second largest town and is located 78km northwest of Melbourne. It is perfect as a change of pace from the hustle and bustle of city life. Ballan was originally settled by the 'Over Straiters' settlers who came across from Van Deimens land then Ballan became a service town for Cobb & Co. Coaches with changing over at 'Werribee Hut' resulting in an increase in the town's population. The Wester freeway connects Ballan to Melbourne in the East and Ballarat in the West. Another main road is the Geelong Ballan Road which connects Ballan to Geelong.

Ballan is serviced by its own Railway station which is part of the Ballarat V Line rail service which can have you at Southern Cross Station under an hour.

Ballan is a rapidly growing area and suits everyone from unit buyers to families looking for a home to small and medium acreage. Ballan has many local businesses, retail precinct, community groups and sporting clubs including football, lawn bowls and the Ballan Golf Club. It also keeps its historical charm with old style buildings including churches, The Mill House, Mechanics Hall and Courthouse.

Ballan has a Catholic and State primary school and has daily bus services to Bacchus Marsh and Ballarat secondary schools.
